Henderson Out, Then Who?

This newspaper and its editors were supporters of Hon. Chas. Henderson for Governor while he was in the race. Since he dropped out we have had very little to say. We did think there was something in what he said when he said that big interests outside the state wanted to reap big rewards from the result of the amendment, which Col. Henderson and thousands of other patriotic Alabamians defeated. We thought the words of Col. Henderson were significant, and we still think so, and we have good company in thousands of people who were against the amendment and for it.

In the early days of the gubernatorial campaign many of the men who helped organize and conduct the Montgomery conference and others who helped defeat the amendment followed Col. Henderson in his coming out for Mallory. Among them were scores of the men who helped carry Coffee County against the amendment; county committeemen, beat committeemen, county officers, county members of the state anti committee, and others in large numbers.

Then in the state at large were scores of the brainy men who helped defeat the amendment; men who have always stood for the right as they saw it, and who have good eyes, like Gov. Jelks, one of the best of Alabama's great governors, who drew the platform of the anti-amendment forces; Frank S. Moody, who was permanent Chairman of the big Montgomery meeting; Ray Rushon, Charley Teasley, Bowie, great speaker and patriot, and on and on till it would take a column to name the big men who were against the amendment and who say Mallory ought to be Governor and not O'Neal.

These men say Mr. O'Neal is radical; that he would not be a safe and conservative governor. They say that Mr. Mallory is a man of fine attainments; that he is sensible; that he is conservative; that he is sound and able and broad in every fibre of his make-up, and would make one of the greatest and best governors that Alabama has ever had.

Are these men in Coffee and over the state who say such things to be believed? Let us look at them a little and see. They do not belong to the crowd that Mr. Mallory was with last fall. No, they do not. So they can not be saying what they do because they have been tied up with Mr. Mallory and want to keep sticking to him. No, they can not. Then they can not be said to be fighting Mr. O'Neal because they have been against him; not at all; they were with him last fall, and if what they were and what he was last fall counted they would have to be with him. So old times, and amendment, and the like can not be given as the reason. It is not the reason.

Then who offers any other reason? No one. There is no reason to offer; there is nothing to show that they are not in dead earnest when they say they believe that Mallory would make a good governor and that O'Neal would make a bad one. They must be telling the truth. There is no other explanation.

But some of the big workers against the amendment, a few, just a handful, have lined up behind Mr. O'Neal. They include Mr. Jesse Stalling, Peyton Bowman, and J. Lee Long, John B. Knox and a few others.

Of Jesse Stalling and his well-known characteristics we do not say a word that is not known to his discredit by nearly all the voters in South Alabama. Of Bowman what we would say you have always heard, and never heard denied, things that do not fit him to be a leader of peaceable, law-abiding people like those of Coffee County.

Grand Jury Presentments

To Hon. H. A. Pearce, Judge of 12th Judicial Circuit.

We the grand jury impeached by your Honor at the present term of court, most respectfully submit the following, our final report.

We have made a diligent and searching inquiry into twenty-three presentments of violations of the law made to our body and as a result of our investigations herewith hand your Honor seven true bills, being four felonies and thirteen misdemeanors. The small number of presentments made indicates to our minds that our section of the county is in a prosperous and peaceful condition and that crime is on the decrease.

We have returned indictments in all cases where the evidence was sufficient, and we thought a prosecution necessary to the public good.

A committee from our body visited the county poor house and report that they found five inmates confined therein, who stated that they received plenty to eat, such as it was. The bedding was only fairly good, and that these poor people need some clothing and shoes. We respectfully recommend to the commissioners' court that they see to it that these unfortunate people are comfortably cared for, and if it requires a larger appropriation it should be made.

The committee reports the jail in as well kept and clean condition as could be expected, and the prisoners well provided for. There is a low flat place near the jail which fills with water in the rainy season and becomes stagnant, and dogs and cattle rooting and walking in it causes a stench, which we believe is likely to cause sickness. We call attention of the authorities to this matter and hope they will remedy it. We find that there are some repairs being made to the jail and court house of a sanitary nature.

We would recommend that the carpet on the floor of the court room be torn away and a new and more substantial one be put down and the court room and other rooms upstairs be closed up.

A committee examined the books of the probate Judge and found them in a neat and well kept condition, as are also the assessor's and collector's books. We had access to only a part of the clerk and sheriff's books, and found them correct as well as we could ascertain. The treasurer's books were in a neat and well kept condition.

We found the bonds of the county officers sufficient in form and amply secured. The public roads have been reported in their usual condition—very little improvement. The road officials have assured us that they expect to make more favorable reports in future.

In conclusion we desire to thank your Honor for the impressive instructions given us in charge, and assure that it aided us in the discharge of our duties, and we appreciate it.

Indorsing Hon. E. R. Brannen for Circuit Judge.

The following resolutions were adopted by unanimous vote of the Democratic Executive Committee Friday:

Resolutions.
Whereas, Hon. Ezra R. Brannen, of Pike County, who is a candidate for Judge of the 12th Judicial Circuit, is an able and distinguished lawyer, and has wide experience in successful practice, and is a man of noble impulses and judicial temperament:

And Whereas, The ripe experience, strong mental and physical vigor of Mr. Brannen, who is in his prime, and his sound discretion and excellent attainments all unite in making him peculiarly adapted to serve as Judge:

And Whereas, Mr. Brannen, having been born and and partially reared in Coffee County, (where many of his relatives, who are among our best people reside,) is the first son of Coffee who has ever offered for a Circuit office:

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Democratic Executive Committee of Coffee County heartily endorse Hon. Ezra R. Brannen for nomination as Circuit Judge in the May 2nd primary:

Be it further resolved that this Executive Committee, from its knowledge of Mr. Brannen as a splendid citizen and able lawyer, realizes that as Circuit Judge he would adorn the bench and reflect honor and credit upon the circuit and himself, and this Committee commends him to the voters of the Circuit, and asks for him their vote and support.

On Account Illness of Solicitor's Father.

Mrs. Ida Clark's case did not come up for trial yesterday, on account of the illness of Solicitor R. H. Parks' father, Judge W. H. Parks, who was last week stricken with paralysis, and who was in such condition that he could not be here yesterday.

Judge Pearce announced that any special solicitor he might appoint would not be familiar enough with case to prosecute it well, and that as other side was moving continuance as well he would continue case.

Wilks Case Not Tried.
Owing to fact that State is represented by Solicitor Parks and Hon. W. L. Parks, both of whom are kept away by illness of their father, and fact that defendant moved continuance because of absent witnesses, the case of Will Wilks, charged with murdering General Bowdon, was this morning continued when called for trial.

Neighbor Primaries.
Pike and Geneva had primaries yesterday. Pike had a primary and nominated Edmondson judge, McBryde sheriff, and Cox clerk.

In Geneva Black and Morris led for judge and will run it off in May. Draughton is clerk and Brown Sheriff winning over all opponents a clear majority.

Foley's Kidney Remedy is a safe and certain remedy for all kidney and bladder diseases, whether acute or chronic. It is a splendid tonic for middle aged and elderly people and a sure cure for all annoyances and irregularities of the kidneys and bladder. Sold by City Drug Store.

Knox Literature

In the last few days stacks of literature in all of Hon. John B. Knox for the Senate has been coming through the mails to Coffee County voters.

Whatever else may be said of John B. Knox no one can truthfully say that he is not able. He writes a shifty pen. He sometimes writes with ink composed of worm-wood and muriatic acid, but what he writes reads fine to a man whom it does not go after. We imagine that the fellow that he does go after does not feel so well when he reads it.

In one of Knox's pamphlets headed, "Knox in the Race," in paragraph V, which is headed "Bankhead Supporting Mallory," Mr. Knox says that he is informed that Senator Bankhead is supporting Mallory. We thought this had proven untrue, but we must have been mistaken, or else Mr. Knox, who is ardently for Mallory, for if not so warm a supporter of O'Neal as Mr. Knox would not at this stage of the campaign, over a month after he first said so, continue to say to the voters the same thing.

The Clipper will take it for granted that Knox is right, and that it is so, and that Bankhead is for Mallory. This being true means that Mallory has a walk-over for governor. For Bankhead has the strongest hold on the people of Alabama that any man has had in many years.

The fact that Bankhead can get one-third of the big river appropriation for Alabama—one dollar in three when our share by division is one in fifteen; the fact that he is a working senator; the fact that he is the farmer senator; the fact that he is about to be successful in getting the national government committed to the plan of building good hard roads for the farmers join in making Bankhead near and dear to nearly all the people.

The fact that Mr. Knox is mailing the voters of the State literature in which he first declares so strongly for O'Neal and then puts Bankhead as being for Mallory is worth thousands of votes for Mallory, for while Mallory is strong, Bankhead is stronger. Then the people know that Bankhead seldom makes political mistakes. He knows how to pick a winner. They know that Bankhead has supported most of the men who have won in big contests in Alabama.

Indeed Bankhead and Mallory make a strong combination, they make a winning ticket. We had lost sight of the fact that Bankhead is for Mallory, or thought it was a mistake, or something of the sort, and are under obligations to Mr. Knox for bringing it up fresh in our minds. Bankhead for the Senate; Mallory for Governor; you cast best bet Mr. Knox, specially when Senator Bankhead is for Mallory.

Price Running Fast.

From over the state come cheerful reports of the strength of Hon. K. B. Price for railroad Commissioner. He has received in person and by mail reports that show that he unquestionably has the sort of vote that wins in a race like his—a nice rein every county in the state. There are no less than eight candidates running for the two railroad commissionerships; all of them have some following. But Mr. Price's widespread acquaintance his fearlessness and ability, have given him an easy lead in the race that is steadily growing. This is specially pleasing to us, his home county people.

Mister newspaper-borrower you ought to take this paper; one dollar for two papers a week an entire year.

COL. PITTS SPOKE.

Dallas County] Makes Able Speech.
Col. A. D. Pitts, of Seima spoke to a good audience at the court-house yesterday afternoon.

He advocated Col. Mallory for governor, set forth his claims and clean record, and talked about "dead issues." On this line his speech was rich and tact.

Taking up Col. O'Neal he told of some of his record; attitude in opposition to initiative and referendum and opposition to the people electing United States senators, etc., only short while ago, etc.

Col. Pitts was one of the big men on the side that defeated the late constitutional amendment. His remarks on that were particularly forcible and witty. He is a great big man, mentally and oratorically, and his speech helped his friend, Col. Mallory.

Saved a Soldier's Life.

Facing death from shot and shell in the civil war was more agreeable to J. A. Stone, of Kemp, Tex., than facing it from what doctors said was consumption.

"I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough, that stuck to me in spite of all remedies for years. My weight ran down to 120 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 175 pounds." For Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Asthma, Hemorrhage, Hoarseness, Croup, Whooping Cough and lung trouble, its cure. 50c $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Harp Drug Co.

A great many of our farmers have decided that it pays to use plenty of guano, and so will go in heavier on guano than heretofore. It only takes a few pounds of lint cotton to pay for a sack of guano, so they say, and an extra sack or two will make the amount of cotton it takes to pay for it, leave the land in better fix, and then make in addition a bunch more of cotton for profit. Indeed it has been well established that heavy fertilization of both corn and cotton pays and pays big.

anything else except the best carpet grass.

This county can soon get to where it can raise more cotton, more corn, and other crops than it does, and grow besides a million dollars worth of most every year, and with only the labor we have now. You raise about ground peas. You raise about now. A little more attention to them will come any how. But you need bermuda to run your hogs from spring till ground pea time. You ought to plant at least a patch this spring. Beat 12 farmers named above and J. L. Larkins say an acre of bermuda makes more money for a farmer than an acre of cotton. It costs very little to put it out, and once out it is there forever. Try it.

Hogs-Bermuda-A Neglected Opportunity.

Here in Coffee County we have more than four acres lying idle, where one is cultivated. The fact that we cultivate is poorly cultivated, because we try to cover so much ground that we make a failure of cultivating it right—the way that will produce the largest and most profitable crops. It may be said that we have more-fifths of our land idle and more of the other fifth wasted.

There are too few people in Coffee County to make use of our best areas of land in corn and cotton farming. If we were to use our lands to advantage in corn and cotton farming we would need one hundred thousand people on the farms, and twenty thousand people in the towns. Our population more than four times as great as we now have, such a population as it will be fifty or a hundred years to come. Till we get them our lands will be idle. They will not be idle. We will pay taxes on them; we will have money tied up in them; yet we will get no return from four acres out of five.

What can we do as a county's people? What can we do as individual farmers and land owners? We can do at all practicable for migration to be obtained in old settled counties. It is nobody's business to go out and bring in settlers in large numbers, because there are no large land owners to handle such a job. So we will have to be content with what grows naturally in and locate people, and with the natural increase of population by excess of deaths.

Then what can we do? Simply raise plant crops that can be made profitably without any more labor than we have. What crops are these? Just one class: hogs, swine and what they eat; and of these we will discuss only one, hogs, because hogs are most profitable.

What will be told about hog raising is not an opinion of the writer, but is made up of facts ascertained from the experience of Coffee County farmers.

Up in beat 12 in this county is land which no one will deny is below the county's average in fertility. A few years ago it was at the bottom in price. Now it is as good as the best and there is none of it for sale; if a piece were to be sold it could be at a fancy price. What has caused this? Hogs and bermuda grass. Do the farmers up there still make corn and cotton? They do; they make more than they did before they began growing hogs.

Beat 12 farmers say that bermuda grass gives no trouble from spreading, that it furnishes food for hogs from March till ground pea time; not a scant living that will keep a razor-back alive if he can live any how, but good, growing feed that will keep up fine hogs and keep them growing. The beat 12 farmers know their business. They grow their hogs on bermuda grass, and fatten them on ground peas, and they take care to have plenty to fatten them. They fertilize and work their ground peas, and make fine ones. They raise all the meat they need and sell many thousand dollars worth of pork and bacon and of live fat hogs to be shipped to the North every fall. There are no farmers in South Alabama who own as much town property, as many shares of bank-stock, as many fine buggies and pianos, that have as many of their children in school and college, as the beat 12 people, if numbers are considered. You don't have to ask if their way of doing pays—you can just look and see.

Do you want to go to beat 12 and see? It is a two hours' drive from Elba to the edge of the beat. You can take our word for it, or you can go look, or you can write Tex Collector Folsom, now at Elba, or Billie Jones, Joe Baker, John Dunnivant, George Hildreth, A. A. Spears, Billie Dubose, S. E. Folsom, and others who live on Clintonville R. F. D. 1.

THE POINT ABOUT THIS ARTICLE IS THAT NOW IS THE TIME OF YEAR TO PLANT BERMUDA GRASS.

One way to plant it is to plow and rake up bermuda grass and roots, and chop it up in small pieces and sow it broad cast and plow it in in March or April. If it is sown thick enough it will make a good stand quickly.

Another way to put out bermuda grass is to get roots and grass, and break land with straight shovel, letting boy walk behind plow and drop piece of grass about every three feet in open furrow. Owing to having to stop to fill basket with grass the boy can not drop it in more than every other furrow, but if it be dropped there and covered by next furrow it will soon make stand. Turn plows should not be used as they cover grass so deep that much of it will never come through.

Where the last method of dropping grass is used, if grass be dropped in moderately small pieces a one-horse wagon load (with dirt knocked out of grass) will plant over two acres. If grass is dropped in good size pieces a one-horse wagon load will be needed to every acre. Just how much cost there is to the acre putting it out by either plan can be figured by each farmer for himself. Putting out the grass is better and cheaper than sowing seed, which are often dead and are very expensive. Getting up the grass is a bad job—that is it takes several hours to get a wagon load. A plow, rakes, and pitch-forks are needed to get up grass.

The grass should be put out in the spring—in March or April. Farmers who live in the vicinity of Elba can get the grass from Mr. J. L. Larkins' pasture, two miles West of town, of town, or off of the streets. Every farmer should put out at least a patch in his pasture this spring. In that way he can tell what it will do. Then he will have grass at hand to get some to plant next spring. It does not hurt to turn cows in on it the first year it is planted. In fact it is better to do so, for if crab grass, weeds and pursley come up and shade it much they will hurt it, for bermuda does not like shade.

No, it will not do well on seepy, wet land. Yes, like everything else, it makes better on good land. But it will do well on poor sand hills. It does not do so well on real stiff clay land.

Any farmer who has ever had bermuda will tell you what a few acres of it is better than a great big pasture in the woods or of
